Residential on 4.32 Acres

NONE, Rural Cypress County, Alberta

This gorgeous acreage will provide you with all the space youâ€™ll ever need and so close to City limits. The beautifully landscaped yard has an abundance of trees surrounding the perimeter, as well as strategically placed throughout the yard. There is a beautiful driveway leading to the house, lots of parking and a large detached garage at the back corner of the yard. The entire property offers 4.32 acres. This wonderful bungalow has a brick exterior, triple attached garage, six bedrooms and three full bathrooms. Letâ€™s head inside this spacious home and talk about all it has to offer! The front entrance has a large closet with sliding doors and is open to the dining room, living room and kitchen with access to the back yard. Each of these rooms offer lots of space to gather and visit, or to enjoy the peaceful view out of any of the many windows. The kitchen has beautiful cabinets, an island with seating, stainless-steel appliances and a built-in wine rack. Down the hall are two bedrooms, a five-piece bathroom and the master bedroom with ensuite and walk in closet. The entire master suite is what dreams are made of â€“ there are double doors to enter the room and a door leading to the balcony from the bedroom; the five-piece ensuite has a jetted tub and a separate shower. The laundry room is located at the back entrance to the garage, where there is lots of storage and hooks to keep everything well organized. The lower level has a large family room with fireplace and bar area, three large bedrooms and a three-piece bathroom. This home is truly a magnificent opportunity and comes with the convenience of City Water for the house and SMRID water rights for ensuring your yard is always looking its best for you to enjoy this incredible space. There is plenty of space for you to enjoy the perfect garden. Are you wanting to have horses as well? No problem, this amazing property can also accommodate horses and has a small pasture.
